FOUR INJURED IN OVERPASS CRASH LAST FRIDAY

Four persons escaped with minor injuries last Friday morning in a two-car head-on collision on the Route 2 overpass in Bethel.

Treated at the office of Dr. John Young was Harold Dalton, 32, of Ajax, Ont., driver of one of the cars involved, his wife, Betty, 29, and a son, Daniel, 7. Other passengers, apparently injured in the crash were, Arlene, 9, and Glenn, 5.

The operator of the other vehicle, identified as Wayne Matthews, 47, of Joppa, Md., was not reported injured but his wife, Gloria, 45, was treated by Dr. Young.

Police reported that both vehicles were totally demolished and were removed from the scene of the 11:15 a. m. accident by wreckers.

It was reported that Mr. Matthews said he believed he was on a one-way section of the overpass looking for the Route 2 exit signs when the collision occurred.

State Trooper Haven Hutchinson of West Paris, the investigating officer, said Matthews was ten feet into the other lane when the collision took place. He said the Maryland man apparently had not seen the other car approaching.

Assisting Hutchinson with the investigation were State Trooper Norman Auger of Hanover and Deputy George Gilbert of the Oxford County Sheriff's Department.

After careful individual study of these codes the Board will meet next Thursday to begin to prepare a building code suitable for Bethel. It is the hope of the Board that any interested persons will attend this meeting.

Members of the local planning group are: Mrs. Patricia Hudson, chairman; Wilbur Myers, Mrs. Ruth C. Ames, Ted Chadbourn, and Frank Lowell. Associate members are Charles Heywood and Carroll Valentine.

PSAT TO BE HELD AT TELSTAR REGIONAL HIGH ON SATURDAY, OCT. 26

The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) will be administered Saturday, Oct. 26, at 9:00 a. m. in the Lecture Room at Telstar Regional High School.

The Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT) is a shorter version of the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT), which almost all four-year colleges, and many Junior Colleges and two-year Technical Institutes require for admission. The PSAT contains multiple-choice questions of the same type as those used in the SAT and measures the same verbal and mathematical abilities. The test requires approximately 2½ hours, and the fee is $1.50 for each student.

This test will be the eleventh graders first chance to gain experience with College Board testing. It is recommended that all Juniors planning to attend a four-year college, Junior College, or Technical Institute take the PSAT for practice experience. Scores on the PSAT will be available in December from the Guidance Counselor. Results of the PSAT are not only helpful in predicting scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test but also will help students make more realistic, final college choices.

If any have questions about the PSAT, or if any are undecided whether or not to take the test, Mrs. Priscilla Hotte, Junior-Senior Counselor at Telstar Regional High School will answer student and parents questions by phone or arrange a conference. The phone number for Telstar Regional High School is 824-2027.

Juniors may register now for this test by completing a form and paying $1.50 at the Guidance Office. Checks should be made payable to Telstar Regional High School. The deadline for registration for the PSAT is Oct. 11.

Mexico scored three times in the opening period then went on to spoil Telstar Regional High School's football debut 32-6 on the Gould Academy field last Saturday afternoon. COUNTY FARMERS GROSS $11.6 MILLION SAYS U. S. D. A.

From the standpoint of gross income, Oxford County farms yielded more in the past year than did farms in many parts of the country.

Related to the size of the local farm population, the results were better than average, according to a nationwide survey of farm and ranch operations.

Credit for it is attributed to increased output, made possible by generally favorable weather conditions, by greater mechanization and by more intensive use of fertilizers and insecticides. They more than compensated for the reduced acreage under the Government's diversion programs.

The facts and figures, showing how the local farm community fared in comparison with others, are contained in a comprehensive survey of farm incomes released by the Standard Rate and Data Service.

It reports total receipts in Oxford County from the year's farm marketings at $11,612,000. This was the gross amount, before deductions for operating costs.

It consisted of the cash returns from the sale of crops and livestock, together with Government payments and the value of home-grown products consumed on the farm.

Expressed in terms of the local farm population, the gross income per capita was equivalent to $6,451, an increase over the previous year's $6,254.

It was more than was reported for farm areas in many sections of the United States, the average being $4,737.

Of the amount received locally from the sale of farm products Department of Agriculture figures indicate that about 34 percent of it came from crops and 66 percent from livestock, poultry and dairy goods.

Despite the bountiful harvests, however, the squeeze on the farmer continues. He finds himself caught in the usual bind of higher operating costs with no corresponding rise in prices.

He has not been able to pass on his higher costs. As a matter of fact, the bumper crops have had the reverse effects, driving prices lower.

What is needed, according to Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, "is a broad-based program to expand markets, increase prices, cut costs and thus provide the basis for increased net farm income."

FISH AND GAME ASSN.

REPLACES DAM AT INDIAN POND SEPT. 7-8

On Saturday, Sept. 7, and Sunday, Sept. 8, the old dam at Indian Pond, Greenwood, was replaced by Mr. Abram Fish and Game Assn. The old dam was built in 1937, a wooden structure with a wood fish screen. An earthen dam with a cement spillway and a steel apron to prevent rough fish from entering the pond now replaces it. Repairs and improvements were also made to the Indian Pond road on Sunday.

Mr. Faye and Mr. DeRoche of the Maine Dept. of Fish and Game, have agreed on the reclaiming of Indian Pond this fall. Next spring brook trout will be stocked also smelt for trout food. Landlocked salmon would also be stocked if so desired by the majority of local sportsmen. The Fish and Game Association is grateful to Mr. Foye and Mr. DeRoche for special attention to this project. This should result in many enjoyable hours for local fishermen.

Perfect weather was enjoyed and helped in making this project a huge success. Equipment and materials were donated by Milton Mills, David Ellingwood, Earl Palmer and Phil Chadbourn. Mr. Abram Fish and Game Association expresses thanks for a job well done to the men turning out and donating labor and for the use of equipment.

Help to plan and complete future projects, new ideas, opinions and skills are a valuable asset to the organization. Meetings are held in the town hall at Locke Mills on the third Thursday of each month. Membership cards are available at the meetings or from the following: Brown's Variety, Steve's Garage, Bethel; Norwood Ford, Locke Mills; The Village Store, Bryant Pond; Trap Corner Garage, West Paris.

Is Golden Text is from John:
"Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you."

Among related passages to be read from the Christian Science
textbook, "Science and Health with Key to Scriptures" by the denomination's founder, Mary Baker Eddy, is the following:
"Christianity causes men to turn naturally from matter to Spirit
as the flower turns from darkness to light. Man then appropriates those things which 'eye hath not seen nor ear heard.' Paul and John had a clear apprehension that, as mortal man achieves no worldly honors except by sacrifice, so he must gain heavenly riches by forsaking all worldliness. Then he will have nothing in common with the

"UNFOLDING OF ARTISTIC ACTIVITY"

A preliminary meeting and a brief lecture on the course called "Unfolding of Artistic Activity" was held in the community room
of the Casco Bank at Bethel.

Mrs. Bronislaw Noyl pointed out with striking illustrations that artistic appreciation is not a separate appreciation of a relatively few people. It is the natural reaction of the average human being to the colors and shapes around him. Ugliness is a refusal to adapt the structures man makes to the natural forms and contours of the places where the structures are located. The art of city planning is harmony with nature. When that harmony is neglected, ugliness is the inevitable result.

Urban culture as we know it is a by-product of the industrial age. Mrs. Noyl asserted that the structure of cities is based on the satisfaction of minimal needs, whereas there is a real need for the rebuilding of our cities to give maximal satisfaction. Nor is this impossible of fulfillment. The material capacity to do this is close at hand. We have, the speaker pointed out, lost sight of our own ability to respond to the beautiful, nor do we understand how important beauty is for health of body as well as of man's spirit.

The speaker described the ways in which the starvation of man's instinct for beauty leads him toward delinquency of various kinds. The impulse he has to lead him toward conformity with nature will, if denied too long, lead him to excesses or to anti-social behavior.

Classes meet every Wednesday
from 7 to 9 p. m. in the community room of the Casco Bank, Bethel. Registration still open.

OUTDOOR SCHOOL
LABORATORIES

The opening of schools for an other year centered attention on "outdoor laboratories". The idea of having a living laboratory on school grounds for the benefit of all students was commended by Donald T. Dinmore, State Con-
servationalist, USDA Soil Con-
servationalist, USDA Soil Con-
servationalist Service with headquarters in Orono.

"Were every school in the United States to have an outdoor laboratory on its grounds, the beneficial effects would be substantial," Dinmore said.

Whatever the size of the school property, it affords opportunities for studying nature. With an outdoor laboratory, students can observe growing plants and develop an appreciation of a natural environment. The larger school grounds can be developed to include nature or conservation trails, wildlife areas, ponds and woodland management areas, according to Dinmore.

Through their local soil and water conservation districts,
school boards can obtain free
technical help from the Soil Conservation Service in planning and developing an outdoor laboratory.

In Maine one or more schools
in most counties have developed outdoor laboratories with SCS help.

In Oxford County, School Administrative District 43 in Mexico has started an outdoor laboratory.

James Clark, head of the Science Department arranged to have a wildlife pond built on the land of Donald Cummings of Mexico. This pond has also been stocked with trout through the auspices of the Oxford County Soil and Water Conservation District. Nature trails have also been laid out for student use, by Soil Conservation Service technicians.

Miss Schaeffer has been engaged in educational work in the Raipur area (Central India) since 1925. Her most recent assignment was with the Board of Christian Institutions, which is chiefly made up of Indian educational leaders.

Throughout her career, Miss Schaeffer has served principally as an administrator and teacher in mission schools in Raipur
and in the district's Hindi primary schools. She has also maintained a training program for approximately 30 teachers of the schools under her supervision.

Appointed a career missionary in 1925 by the Foreign Mission Board of the Evangelical Synod of North America (now a part of the United Church Board for World Ministries), Miss Schaeffer has seen many changes in the schools since she first went to India. In the early years, she recalls, it was difficult to persuade parents to send their children to school. Now the same schools are crowded to capacity, she says.

GREENWOOD CITY

— Mrs. Colista Morgan, Cor. —

Recently I had the privilege of observing a flock of Black Ducks which has been tamed by Bertha Emmons at Locke Mills. When very young she would feed them at the water's edge. Now she feeds them corn through her window; their reward to her call, "Come, duckies, come!"

Three of us watched with amazement and spontaneous expectation as they left tumbled waves and arose above the bank to plunge downward, glancing here and there and memorizing as one might say, the people and landscape. "These hardy little adventurers usually so shy and wary waddled in, gently speaking their thanks for so friendly an audience, up and over the brown knoll, first one then two and on until there were eight.

The setting was perfect for in the background the water dappled, rustling the reeds along the shore line.

There were both pleasure and sadness in turning away and leaving these bronzed wayfarers of the water and air. We wished they could always fly wild and true and free. But they and their cousins, riding those tumbled waves soon must again become wary and stay only where they are sure of protection.

So, Ducks, hide among the blowing grass and don't show your unexpected flash of wings. Seek out the cool silence of some ferny bank, where a pool lies quiet and peaceful and you may then again explore without fear the lovely setting in which you were observed this day.

THE YOUTH CENTER SPEAKS TO YOU

by Dave Hanscom

All right Teens! Let's go! Let's start this year out right. Last spring in this column you were informed that "The Youth Center" would have membership cards, and that if you used the Youth Center you would be required to help clean up when asked. Well, here's how it stands now, the same group is always cleaning up and we've sold three membership cards.

At a meeting Tuesday night (Sept. 10), it was decided something would have to be done about this. So, from this date forward, everyone, attending the youth center must have a membership card and be willing to help clean up when their turn comes. If not, the Youth Center will have to be closed. The Youth Center has had great attendance this summer so we know you are interested. Membership cards are available at the Youth Center snack bar at $1 for a year.

Also at this meeting, a unanimous vote put Mrs. Dale Thurston on the Board of Directors as executive director. Present at this meeting were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Blake Jr., Mrs. Louise Lincoln, Mrs. Sue Farrar, Rev. Stebbins, Rev. Laws, Jerri Brooks, and Dave Hanscom.

An annual meeting of people interested in the Youth Center is being planned for the last of September. Watch this column for exact date.

The Board of Directors would also appreciate any suggestions you may have, and hope you will attend any Youth Center Board of Directors meeting.

The new time for the Youth Center will be 3-5 Mon.-Fri. and also Friday evening from 7-10. This time change will be effective starting Thursday, Sept. 19.

SUNDAY RIVER

Mrs. E. M. Fleet, Corres.

Mrs. Jane Baker was taken to the St. Lewis Hospital Sunday, Sept. 1, and was no better Saturday, Sept. 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Verrill of Concord, Mass., spent the week at their place here, returning home Saturday morning.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wight of Bethel was in Ketchum and called at R. M. Fleet's on her way home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Rolfe and two sons of North Waterford called on the David Fleets Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Yates had company Saturday evening.

Wallace Brown of West Bethel is our new Rawleigh dealer and hopes to come around once a month.

Bryce Yates is preparing another truck for the woodwork.

One new pupil will be going to school from here. Ann Freeman of Rumford will be here for a while as first grader.

The swallows have gone except for a very few late hatched ones. Some blue birds are gone and a flock of about a hundred night hawks were counted late one afternoon and were presumed to be on their way south. But we have had the addition to our wild life of some pheasant which were let out this past week. They are staying near the main road which is not good as some were run over last year. Hope a couple will join at our bird feeders later so we can have them to talk about.

Acorns and beechnuts are falling so our squirrels are helping themselves. No deer this week but a very few colored leaves.

Mr. and Mrs. David Fleet are making good headway on the addition to their house. The other evening six of the family had hammers and the nails were getting a pounding.

Harold Conner was in town from Bethel, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes Yates were in Berlin, shopping, Friday.

Our next Sunday school meeting will be Sept. 22. Hope all can come as we only have seven more meetings before Christmas.

FROM OUR FILES

10 YEARS AGO

The Sunday River Skiway announced that Herman Bennett and Clarence Rolfe of West Bethel took the job of clearing the merchantable timber from the trails and lift line on Barker Mountain.

The article concerning the adoption of a zoning ordinance for Bethel was acted on favorably at a special town meeting. Harold L. Bean, town manager, was appointed building inspector. Richard Davis, Clarence Rolfe and Edmond Vachon were appointed to the board of appeals. An associate member was later named.

Mrs. Milton Mills, Bryant Pond, was one of 47 student nurses to receive diplomas from the Mary Hitchcock Memorial Hospital School of Nursing, Hanover, N. H.

20 YEARS AGO

A bear weighing 460 pounds was killed in Woodstock by Herman Billings.

Hanover was honored when Mrs. Charles Lindbergh, wife of the famous aviator, stopped a short time in that town.

Deaths: Mrs. Ermine Tyler, Mrs. Sarah Gunther, Charles C. Kimball, Carroll Johnson.

30 YEARS AGO

Wallace Merrill sold his home in Skillington to Mr. and Mrs. Spurgeon Luxton of Rumford. Mr. Merrill built a new home near the one sold.

Wallace D. Nevel of Andover was killed by a pre-mature explosion of dynamite at the Newry feldspar mine.

Albert Brown and family moved to Mexico where he was to teach in Mexico high school. Deaths: Mrs. Alberta Davis, L. Eugene Elwell, Harry B. Skeele.

40 YEARS AGO

Nearly every office in Oxford County was won by Republicans. East Bethel's new school house was completed for the opening of the school year on Sept. 11.

Plans were underway to rebuild the burned church and community house at Waterford.

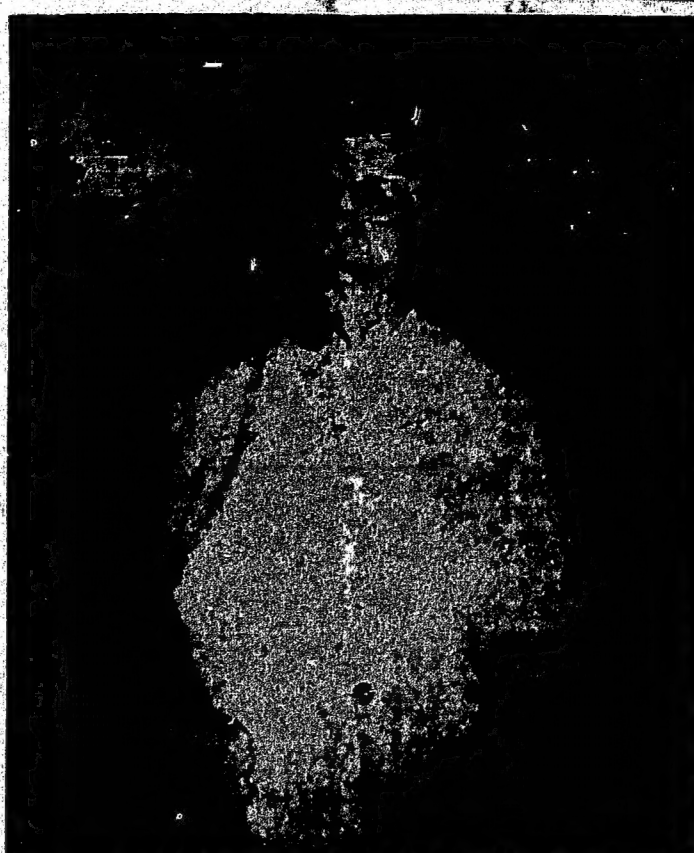

Deaths: Thomas McCluskey (drowning), Floyd Chapman.

50 YEARS AGO

The excursion train for Berlin (GTR) was over crowded.

Bethel corn factory was handling the corn from Waterford on account of the Waterford plant burning.

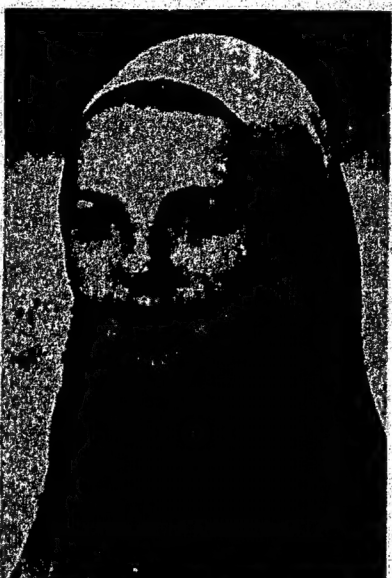

There was a large number of horses at Riverside Park. Every stall on the grounds was taken and many more housed at Ryerson's stable.

CELEBRATES 90TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Henry M. Laws, who has been living with her son, Rev. Clifford W. Laws, for the past five years, reached a milestone, when she celebrated her 90th birthday, Wednesday.

When posing for her picture, she told the Citizen photographer, "Take it standing up. I'm not so old that I have to sit down, and I don't need a cane either."

IS ENGAGED — Miss Brenda Mae Hodson, formerly of Andover, now of Cicero, N. Y., whose engagement to Frank H. Maitland, Jr., of Swampscott, Mass., has been announced.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY MEETS

The Bethel Unit of the Rumford Community Hospital met at the home of Mrs. Dexter Stowell Monday evening. Plans were made for the Hospital Fair to be held Oct. 17 in Rumford. A work meeting will be held at Mrs. Samuel Bigelow's Thursday, Sept. 19. There will be a car on display at the I. G. A. parking lot Oct. 4 at which time the Auxiliary members will accept donations for the car plus other items.

YOUTH CENTER IN TROUBLE

Last Monday night the Official Board of the Methodist Church in Bethel held their monthly meeting. Those who were present were: Dick Davis (Chairman), Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Stevens, Hulda Stevens, Albert Buck, Virginia Walker, Mrs. Myrtle Lapham, Miss Minnie Wilson, Earl Davis, and Rev. George Stebbins.

The question was raised, "Has the Youth Center been keeping its end of the bargain with the church?" (In return for the use of the basement area of the church the Center would keep the rooms clean, and in good repair, and Sunday school furniture set up for classes when necessary.) There was unanimous agreement that the Youth Center had failed to do so. A motion was made, seconded, and passed that, "Unless there is an improvement of the situation by the time of the October Official Board Meeting, the church will withdraw the privilege and the Youth Center will be made to move elsewhere."

Among the probable topics of discussion would be: Does science contradict the Bible? Is the Bible really God's Word? Can I have peace and security in this confusing world? To be a Christian do I have to stop having fun?

Come this week and get in on the first day of fun and Bible discussion. Teens are especially welcome for the discussion groups. Transportation is provided. Call 824-2836.

NEW BIBLE SCHOOL PROGRAM BEGINS

The Church of the Open Bible, meeting in the home of Pastor Milton Gross at 15 Park St., Bethel, begins the Fall season with a brand new Sunday School program for all ages this Sunday at 10:00 a. m.

So many of the young people expressed enjoyment with the summer Bible school, the church has decided to offer a similar program on Sundays. Among the activities will be singing and contests, but most important of all a Bible teaching program to meet the need of today's young person.

Among the probable topics of discussion would be: Does science contradict the Bible? Is the Bible really God's Word? Can I have peace and security in this confusing world? To be a Christian do I have to stop having fun?

Come this week and get in on the first day of fun and Bible discussion. Teens are especially welcome for the discussion groups. Transportation is provided. Call 824-2836.
